

Coria Estates is a family-owned winery in the south hills of Salem, Oregon. We focus on producing Burgundian wines, including Pinot noir, Pinot gris, Rosé of Pinot noir, and Chardonnay. We have roughly 104 acres under vine and have been producing fruit in the Willamette Valley for over 20 years. The Coria Estates label has been producing wine since 2013 and is proud to have the entire family involved in the process. We have a hard working and fun dynamic here and love what we do.

We are seeking part-time sales associates to work in our tasting room. These people will be energetic and passionate about wine and customer wine education. The schedule will predominately be weekends and possibly one/two weekdays. A background in customer service is required, with winery experience a plus. Must have a positive attitude, flexibility, and willingness to handle various group dynamics and tasks. Our goal is to provide customers with the feeling of “stepping into our living room” and have them leave with an overall positive experience.
